THE LARGEST COLLECTION OF ADMINISTRATIVE JOBS ON EARTH

AdminCrossing Offers Exclusive Free Seven-Day Trial Subscription

December 31, 2007

Pasadena, CA—The search for the perfect administrative job is over! Welcome to AdminCrossing, the dynamic online job board with the world's premier collection of active administrative jobs. Every single week, we add hundreds of websites to our monitoring efforts, and as a result, thousands of new jobs have been posted this week alone.

And for seven days, you can search our vast collection of job listings for free — with no strings attached. If users are not satisfied with what they see, they can cancel their seven-day free subscriptions and never pay a dime for what they experienced.

How do we do it? At AdminCrossing, the Internet's smartest and most effective administrative job board, we bring subscribers jobs from virtually every company website and newspaper imaginable. We continuously monitor the hiring needs of more than 250,000 administrative employers, including virtually every administrative firm, corporation, and public interest organization in the United States.

"We are a very serious company," said CEO A. Harrison Barnes. "We have more than 500 employees and employ hundreds of servers across our entire platform to assist our employees in finding you jobs."

In addition to providing an extensive range of job listings, including exclusive notices not posted on other employment sites, AdminCrossing features a variety of articles that tap into the industry's key players, companies, and stories.

This groundbreaking website is affiliated with EmploymentCrossing (www.employmentcrossing.com), the main hub for a growing family of industry-specific job-search sites launched on April 9, 2007. Currently, job seekers can visit EmploymentCrossing to sign up for AdminCrossing's services.

In addition to AdminCrossing, all of the other Crossing sites (except for LawCrossing) are now offering this exclusive seven-day, risk-free trial subscription, allowing professionals to explore the sites and begin searching and applying for any of the thousands of industry-specific positions from across the country at no cost.

The development of the Crossing employment sites has been inspired by the success of LawCrossing (www.lawcrossing.com), which features the largest collection of active legal jobs in the world, including more than 10,000 positions at top law firms, corporations, public interest organizations, and government offices throughout the U.S.

Since its launch in July 2003, LawCrossing has become the world's largest legal-career-placement website. The website is another brainchild of Barnes, who also founded the hugely successful parent company of the Crossing employment sites, Juriscape, in 2000.
