THE LARGEST COLLECTION OF BLUE-COLLAR JOBS ON EARTH

BlueCollarCrossing Offers an Exclusive Free Seven-Day Trial Subscription

October 01, 2007

Pasadena, CA—At BlueCollarCrossing, a rapidly growing job board, hundreds of new websites are added to our monitoring efforts every single week. As a result, thousands of new jobs have been posted this week alone—1,253 in fact!

And now, for a seven-day trial period, anyone can experience the convenience and ease of job searching at BlueCollarCrossing.com for free—no strings attached. If users are not satisfied with what they see, they can cancel their seven-day free subscriptions and never pay a dime.

At BlueCollarCrossing, our researchers investigate countless employer websites, magazines, newspapers, and other publications and monitor the hiring needs of more than 250,000 employers so that no blue-collar job opening is left undiscovered! Our extensive listings include jobs for carpenters, electricians, aviation mechanics, maritime workers, and many more.

But what does BlueCollarCrossing have that makes it so unique? A driven staff dedicated to finding jobs from virtually every company website and newspaper imaginable and a rapidly growing, constantly modified job listing that our staff updates each and every week.

In the words of CEO A. Harrison Barnes: “Our method of finding jobs is completely uncorrupted by outside interests. We put the interests of people first on our list of priorities. This raises the effectiveness of economies because it gives the most motivated members of society the option to ‘shoot for the stars.’”

In addition to providing an extensive range of job listings, including exclusive notices not posted on other employment sites, BlueCollarCrossing features a variety of articles that tap into the blue-collar industry’s key players, companies, and stories. Recent articles include, “Why We Need to Fund and Support Vocational Programs,” and “Machinist: A Premier Blue-Collar Occupation.”

This groundbreaking website is affiliated with EmploymentCrossing (www.employmentcrossing.com), the main hub for a growing family of industry-specific job-search sites that launched on April 9, 2007. Currently, job seekers can visit EmploymentCrossing to sign up for BlueCollarCrossing’s services.

The EmploymentCrossing group of websites is also on the fast track to rapid expansion, with even more Crossing sites launching weekly. These sites will focus exclusively on providing the most extensive range of available jobs from every corner of each sector. Watch for EmploymentCrossing’s upcoming launches, which will include PublishingCrossing, JournalismCrossing, RadioCrossing, TVCrossing, TelecomCrossing, GovernmentCrossing, InternshipCrossing, and EntryLevelCrossing.

THE LARGEST COLLECTION OF BLUE-COLLAR JOBS ON EARTH

The development of the Crossing employment sites was inspired by the success of LawCrossing (www.lawcrossing.com), which features the largest collection of active legal jobs in the world, including more than 10,000 positions at top law firms, corporations, public interest organizations, and government offices throughout the U.S.

Since its launch in July 2003, LawCrossing has become the world's largest legal-career-placement website. The website is another brainchild of CEO A. Harrison Barnes, who also founded the hugely successful parent company of the Crossing employment sites, Juriscape, in 2000.

And now, the Crossing websites have joined the millions of users on MySpace! Explore all the latest updates and news from EmploymentCrossing, LawCrossing, and Hound by browsing bulletins and blogs discussing the sites' newly added articles and job postings.
