

OccupationalTherapyCrossing Launches with More Than 6,000 Occupational Therapy Jobs

April 28, 2008

Pasadena, CA — With the demand for occupational therapists growing, OccupationalTherapyCrossing (www.occupationaltherapycrossing.com), an online occupational therapy job board with more than 6,000 current occupational therapy job openings, launched today.

“Jobs in the healthcare industry are booming right now. There are so many jobs that we decided to give certain niches in healthcare their own job boards. Occupational therapy is one of those sectors,” says CEO A. Harrison Barnes.

“OccupationalTherapyCrossing’s staff aggressively researches and posts occupational therapy jobs all day every day. They don’t wait to post jobs that come to them — it’s much more than that. We seek out jobs and post them as soon as they are available. We also post employer job ads for free, expanding our job selection even more,” Barnes continues.

OccupationalTherapyCrossing’s collection of occupational therapy jobs is also projected to grow rapidly over the next eight years.

The US Department of Labor Bureau of Labor Statistics’ Occupational Outlook Handbook [http://www.bls.gov/oco/ocos078.htm] reports that occupational therapist jobs will increase by 23% from now until 2016, which is faster than the rate of growth for the average occupation. According to the report, this is because the elderly population is growing dramatically with the Baby Boomers approaching retirement age.

This occupational therapy job website is affiliated with EmploymentCrossing [http://www.employmentcrossing.com/], the main hub for a growing family of industry-specific job-search sites. Currently, job seekers can visit EmploymentCrossing to sign up for OccupationalTherapyCrossing’s services.
